For The Little Years:

- Living Room Dance Party

Put your dancing socks on and dance to your own music, or enjoy this fun curated Youtube "Just Dance" playlist!

- Blanket Fort Night

Build with blocks, have a tea party, play with dolls, make flashlight shadows, or read a book!!

- Bake Together

- Backyard S'mores Campout

- Park Picnic

- Yes Day

Set some boundaries, and then get ready to reply "yes" to all requests!

- Visit the Children's Museum

- Go on a Nature Walk

Go for a walk and create a "scavenger hunt": find a rock, find a leaf, etc. Then create a collage together for a meaningful keepsake.

For The Big Years:

- Visit a Coffee Shop

Enjoy the conversation starters and devotional moments provided while you're there.

- Thrift Store Challenge

Go to a thrift store and have a "Find the Funniest Outfit" Challenge!

- Meaningful Mall Walk

Share your testimonies with one another as you walk, and take photos of your time together.

- Paint and Sip at Home

Gather your supplies ahead of time, prepare some hot chocolate and enjoy! Search "Stacy Hannon Valentine's Day" for Valentine's Day themed examples.

- Snacks and Board Games

- Progressive Dinner Date

Find out if there are any new restaurants she would like to try. Then, start with an appetizer at one restaurant, the main course at another location, and dessert at another!

A decorative header for a Father-Daughter Date Ideas page. It features a light pink background with several red hearts of various sizes scattered across the top. On the right side, there is a red butterfly with white spots on its wings. The title "Father Daughter Date Ideas" is written in a large, elegant, cursive red font.

For The Little Years:

Conversation Starters

- "If you could talk to one person from the Bible, who would it be?"
- "What's something kind you did this week that made someone happy?"
- "If God gave you one special job for the day, what would it be?"
- "What's your favorite thing to thank God for?"
- "If we could make a new Bible story together, what would happen?"
- "Who do you think God made you to help, and how?"

Devotional Moment

Thought: You are very special to God. He loves you just like a daddy loves his little girl—always and forever. Even when you feel scared or alone, God is with you and will never leave your side. You are safe and loved!

Reflection Questions:

"What is one thing you can remember today that shows God is always with you?"

For toddlers, have them repeat: God loves me! I am safe, and I am loved!!

Devotional Moment

Thought: You are deeply loved and valuable because God calls you His child. No matter what happens, He will never leave you. Just like a loving father is always there for his daughter, God is always with you, cheering you on, protecting you, and reminding you that you matter.

Reflection Question:

"When you start doubting yourself or feeling lonely, how can remembering God's love and presence help you?"

Prayer

Heavenly Father,
Thank You for the gift of my daughter. Thank You for trusting me with her life and her heart. I'm so grateful for who she is and for every moment I get to be her dad.

Please bless her, protect her, and guide her steps. Guard her heart and fill her life with kindness, truth, and peace. Help her always know how deeply she is loved—by You and by me.

Give her confidence, courage, and joy as she grows. Help me love her well, lead her wisely, and show her Your love through my own.

I place her in Your hands today and always.

In Jesus' Name,
Amen.
